This filing is being made by Qwest in its Tariff F.C.C. No. 1, Section 2 General Regulations and Section 5, Ordering Options for Access Service to address issues associated with the cancellation of access orders. Qwest is experiencing problems with cancellation charges as defined in the tariff.

Qwest custom designs and specifically builds MBSS, SST and SHNS for an individual customer. Facilities for these services are based on a custom design, which includes fiber and multiplexers. In most cases these elements are not available in Qwest's inventory and therefore must be built and installed to meet the design requirements. As a result, key critical dates for the application of cancellation charges may not have been reached if a customer cancels its requested service. One of the key critical dates is the Design Layout Report Date, which is dependent on the customer's final design criteria and is not available until installation is completed. From January 1, 2001 through July 31, 2001 Qwest has had 42 projects cancelled prior to the key order provisioning dates but after significant expenses have been incurred. Qwest estimates that it has incurred $1,456,000 in unrecovered expenses for this period.

In an effort to address this very expensive problem Qwest will apply cancellation charges after the customer has entered into a Confirmation of Sale as defined in the tariff.

Supporting information discussed under Sections 61.49 of the Commission's Rules is, to the extent applicable, included in this transmittal letter.
